

OSAMA BIN LADEN

By:Andrew Ermio 8Wh

CONTENTS

1. Biography (Who is Osama Bin Laden?)
2. Proof of Leadership (who did he lead?)(Who were his followers?)
3. Leadership Category
4. Actions he took to become a leader
5. Consequences of the actions he took
6. Video
7. Bibliography
8. The End

BIOGRAPHY (WHO IS OSAMA BIN LADEN?)

Osama Bin ladin was born into a wealthy family in Saudi Arabia, around 10th March 1957, Riyadh. In the 1980s, he went to Afghanistan to help the Afghan resistance (known as the mujahideen), against the Soviet Union, which had invaded Afghanistan in the 1980s. He then moved to the North African country of Sudan, there he planned attacks on US military. When Sudan's government asked him to leave. He returned to Afghanistan where he was sheltered by the Taliban government. While he was in Afghanistan he continued to organize and fund terrorist operations and created Al-Qaeda. He allied Al-Qaeda with other terrorist groups like Abu-Sayyaf and Salafia-Jihadia.

Osama Bin Ladin
Keeping on guard for Russian activity.

Al-Qaeda's flag.

Abu-Sayyaf's flag.

Salafia-Jihadia's
flag.

PROOF OF LEADERSHIP (WHAT DID HE LEAD?)(WHO WERE HIS FOLLOWERS?)

Osama Bin Laden had created his own terrorist organisation which he funded and led from 1984-2011. He was the one who planned and led the famous incident Hijacking of the 4, 747 commercial aircrafts, the 911 bombing, The Pentagon bombing and the crash at Pennsylvania. His followers were frustrated young muslims who were recruited into Al-Qaeda from Sudan.

These are Al-Qaeda recruits holding the flag.

This is showing the twin towers being bombed by planes.

LEADERSHIP CATEGORY

Osama Bin Laden was a leader of a Muslim terrorist organisation which means he is a organisation leader.

Terrorist armed with RPGs are lined up for a march.

ACTIONS HE TOOK TO BECOME A LEADER

Osama first joined the Afghanistan Resistance (The mujahideen) to fight against the Soviet Union. Secondly, after the Soviet Afghan war he travelled to Sudan where he mostly recruited men for his terror work and targeted U.S military forces. Thirdly, once he was kicked out from Sudan he fled to Afghanistan where the Taliban Government for serving the country well in the war. There he started thinking big on terrorism and he planned and Led the 9/11 bombing, The Pentagon bombing.

Osama scouting the area with other Mujahideen team members.

This map represents of where he travelled to. Saudi to Afghanistan and Afghanistan to Sudan.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE ACTIONS HE TOOK

The consequences of the actions he took was huge. In the 9/11 bombing approximately 2993 people died in the event and with 6000 more wounded. This resulted to be one of the biggest events that occurred in the U.S.A. And then the country declared an all time war against terrorism and the main target was Osama Bin Laden. On the 2nd of May 2011 just after 1:00am Navy seals breached into his hideout and he was shot.

VIDEO

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_4tDwIooSlg

BIBLIOGRAPHY

1. <https://www.biography.com/people/osama-bin-laden-37172>
2. https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Osama_bin Laden
3. https://youtu.be/_4tDwIooSlg
4. "Muslims" 2003, September 11 2001 terrorist Attack The USA, vol1, Harcourt Education-ltd, pp.5-31, Great Britain

THE END

THANKS FOR WATCHING!

HOPE YOU ENJOYED

